

The Third International Congress for Young Egyptologists
"Commerce and Economy in Ancient Egypt"
September 25 - 27, 2009
Budapest, Hungary

---

Programme

24 September 2009

---

Location: King's Hotel, 1072 Budapest Nagy Diófa utca 25-27. (www.kingshotel.hu)

20:00 - 21:00      Welcome drink

25 September 2009

---

Location: Eötvös Loránd University, 1088 Budapest Múzeum krt. 4.

8:00 - 9:00      Registration

9:00 - 9:30      Opening

9:30 - 10:30      Prof. Dr. Jac J. Janssen      Earning a living at Deir el-Medina

10:30 - 11:00      Coffee break

11:00 - 11:30      Hanadah Tarawneh      Gift exchange and tribute in the Amarna letters

11:30 - 12:00      Vessela Atanassova      *The Economic Function of the Title jmy-r ḥmw-ntr "Overseer of the God's Servants"?*

12:00 - 12:00      Andrea Zingarelli      Trade and "money" in Ramesside Egypt: the use of general equivalents in economic transactions

12:30 - 14:00      Lunch Break

14:00 - 14:30      Dr. Ian Shaw      Economic symbols? Quadrilingual vessels as metaphors for the Egypto-Achaemenid encounter

14:30 - 15:00      Agnese Iob      The circulation of precious objects and materials in Egypt and between Egypt and the Near East

15:00 - 15:30      Dr. Sara Caramello - Dr. Alessandro Cappellini
An economic perspective on Near Eastern inter-

kingdoms relationships during the Late Bronze Age

15:30 – 16:00	Coffee break
16:00 – 16:30	Elena Valtorta	Commercial routes in Upper Egypt from Late Naqada II to the Protodynastic: Defining patterns of interaction
16:30 – 17:00	Mariusz Jucha	The early Egyptian rulers in the Nile Delta – a view from the necropolis at Tell el-Farkha
17:00 – 17:30	Marcin Czarnowicz	At the intersection of the trading routes, Commerce and economy of pre- and early dynastic Tell el-Farkha
17:30 – 18:00	Gavin Smith	The transmigration of Predynastic and Protodynastic typologies and their economic utility

26 September 2009

---

Location: Eötvös Loránd University, 1088 Budapest Múzeum krt. 4.

9:00 – 9:30	Anna Hodgkinson	Mass-production in New Kingdom Egypt – Capital cities of the New Kingdom and their major industries
9:30 – 10:00	Walter de Winter	The Egyptian temple economy in the Foreign Lands of Canaan and Nubia
10:00 – 10:30	Giulia Pagliari	Storage in the ancient egyptian palaces
10:30 – 11:00	Coffee break
11:00 – 11:30	Evgeniya Kokina	Two Egyptian private-law documents of the Old Kingdom
11:30 – 12:00	Kata Endreffy	Business with gods: The role of bargaining in demotic letters to gods and Graeco-Roman judicial prayers
12:00 – 12:00	Gabriella Dembitz	The oracular inscription of the High Priest of Amun Menkheperre in the Khonsu temple at Karnak
12:30 – 14:00	Lunch Break
14:00 – 15:30	Public debate	The nature of the Egyptian economy and its interpretation  keynote speakers: Dr. Edward Bleiberg and Dr. David A. Warburton
15:30 – 16:00	Coffee break

16:00 – 16:30	Birgit Schiller	Customs and duty in New Kingdom
16:30 – 17:00	Abeer El-Shahawy	Reflections on the trade scenes in the New Kingdom
17:00 – 17:30	Filipa Nascimento	Luxury goods' imports and trade – Private banquets
17:30 – 18:00	Péter Antalfy	The Nubian tribute

27 September 2009

---

Location: Museum of Fine Arts, Budapest, 1146 Budapest, Dózsa György út 41.

9:00 – 9:30	Alessandra Siragusa	Maritime study on north- and south-bound trade: the Red Sea harbours
9:30 – 10:00	Elsbeth van der Wilt	Lead weights and ingots from Heracleion-Thonis: an illustration of Egyptian trade relations with the Eastern Mediterranean
10:00 – 10:30	Maria Rosa Guasch	Research on the Egyptian wine marketing
10:30 – 11:00	Coffee break
11:00 – 12:00	Prof. Dr. Manfred Bietak	The palace of Khyan
12:00 – 12:30	Máté Petrik	The Asiatics at el-Lahun
12:30 – 14:00	Lunch Break
14:00 – 14:30	Barbara Gilli	Under the protection of the gods: The divine role for the good outcome of trade and mining expeditions
14:30 – 15:00	Virpi Perunka	Pottery as an indicator of economy in Egypt's marginal sites
15:00 – 15:30	Johanna Sigl	Food and luxury good – Shipping meat products and live animals through Ancient Syene/Aswan, Egypt
15:30 – 16:00	Coffee break
16:00 – 16:30	Marco Rolandi	The grain trade and the importance of Egypt for the economy of the Hellenistic-Roman world: some remarks

16:30 – 17:00	Dania Bordignon	Use and symbolism of stone statuary: stone painted to imitate another one
17:00 – 17:30	Prof. Dr. László Török	Closing remarks
17:30 – 18:00		Closing
18:00 – 20:00		Reception

28 September 2009 - Excursion

---

10:00 – 11:30	Guided tour in the Egyptian Collection of the Museum of Fine Arts, Budapest by Dr. Éva Liptay, chief curator of the Egyptian Collection
11:30 – 12:30	Bus trip to Visegrád ( http://www.visegrad.hu/en )
13:00 – 14:00	Lunch at Visegrád
14:00 – 16:30	Guided tour in the Visegrád Citadel and the Royal Palace
16:30 – 17:00	Bus trip to Szentendre
18:30 – 19:00	Bus trip back to Budapest

We look forward to seeing you all in Budapest!

András Hudecz (MA)

Máté Petrik (MA)

Byblos Foundation

ICYE2009@gmail.com

www.byblos.org.hu/index.php